In the year 1642 they passed their first legislative enactment on this subject, in the preamble of which they distinctly pledged themselves to this principle, that education was a matter of the deepest possible importance and the greatest possible interest to all nations and to all communities, and that as such it was, in an eminent degree, deserving of the peculiar attention of the State. [Speech on Government Plan of Education, April 19, 1847.] Ordinance or 1642. At a session of the General Court of the colony of Massachusetts Bay in New England commenced on the 14th of June, 1642,...
