Eddy Ivy Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 180 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.4in. Fiction In Red SAT Edition Parents, have you ever wondered where that fine line between fantasy and reality lies In life, it is that space in time when you realize that it is ultimately up to you to determine your own destiny. It is believed that a persons moral code or (critical factor) is pretty much set by the early teen years. Fiction In Red was originally designed to educate and appeal to teens. The 52 short stories are specifically written for 15 to 18 year old High School students who have an eye on higher education. Fiction In Red is available in two separate versions. The SAT edition and the Airline edition which was designed for travelers who dont want to get caught up in a lengthy novel on a short trip or vacation. Both versions are exactly identical except that the SAT edition has a glossary of over 700 vocabulary building words in a convenient glossary in the back of the book. Imagine a book that allows you to get the essence of it before you buy it. Most books on the internet only allow you to see the first chapter or two if youre lucky, and then leave you hanging. I do not agree with the concept of not giving the purchaser a true sense of what the book is really about. If you go to www.fictioninred.com you will find 5 complete stories, (each its own chapter), which you can read for free before deciding to purchase this book. Fiction In Red allows young minds to awaken to the reality of the real world. There are stories which subtly suggest good morals, stories which force you to face the reality that...
