

The Solutions

By Dennis Marcellino

Lighthouse Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 210 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. What if a candidate for office was not beholden to any political party or special interests (including their own) or philosophy or subculture and wasn't intimidated by feedback they'd encounter, and their only special interest was to do what was best for this nation and its people? Would they come up with different solutions to the current problems in our nation than what is being proposed? The answer is yes, and there ARE real, simple, practical solutions to all of this nation's economic, social, political, personal and foreign policy problems. Some can be found if you dig deep enough, but most of them are rarely or never voiced. Here is some of what this book contains: A solution for how to create jobs for all (and why that would also solve the national debt crisis). A solution for our foreign policy, where no more lives, limbs or money would be lost. A solution for the addiction, drug and alcohol problems. A solution for divorce and marriage. A solution for crime. A solution for the STD problem. A solution for teen pregnancy. A solution for political and religious divisiveness....
