

Bright Hair about the Bone

By Barbara Cleverly

Delta. Paperback. Condition: New. 401 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.2in. x 0.9in. In Burgundy, France, in 1926, a famed archaeologist dies a terrible death in a country not his own. Thus begins CWA Historical Dagger Award winner Barbara Cleverly's dazzling new mystery novel. And soon aspiring archaeologist Laetitia Talbot will find herself embroiled in a murderous conspiracy centuries in the making. Letty's joy at snaring a place in the excavation of an ancient church in Burgundy is dimmed by the tragedy of her godfather Daniel's violent death. But when Letty receives a posthumous encoded message, she begins to believe that Daniel's death was not a random act. Her investigation into Daniel's murder sends her on a journey into a country's remote history into the orbit of a privileged French family harboring its own damning secret into ancient Celtic mysteries and one sacred truth kept through the ages. It is an explosive revelation that could rock modern Christianity and force a killer out of the shadows as a country devastated by one war lays the groundwork for another. Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
