Faber & Faber. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. Recent plays from one of the more daring young stylists working today (David Cote, Time Out New York) Adam Rapps plays have captivated audiences across the country with their unflinching explorations of the good, the bad, and the ugly in Americas heartland and cities. Gathered here are three of his latest works: Faster, in which two young grifters try to strike a deal with the devil during the hottest summer on record; Finer Noble Gases, a lament for a band of arrested thirty-year-olds slouching toward adulthood amid East Village decay; and the Off-Broadway hit Stone Cold Dead Serious. An honest, strange, and humorous look at a blue-collar family struggling to survive in the face of disability and addiction, and the seemingly surreal lengths their teenage son will go to save them from themselves, the play prompted Bruce Weber to rave in The New York Times: Rapp is very gifted, and, even rarer, he has something to say . . . Stone Cold Dead Serious is brave, compassionate, and . . . breathtakingly moving. It is the work of a playwright who is forging a real voice . . . Its rendering of the shared language of loved ones illustrates how families can remain intimate even when they are in shards. Its depiction of a working-class America that is unable to dream of anything beyond enduring is as sincerely sad a commentary on our culture as Ive seen in recent memory. And its fear for young people is, unfortunately, deeply convincing. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
