

Paint the Sky (Paperback)

By Kristin Martin

Ginninderra Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Capturing life s seasons - birth to death and everything in between - and juxtaposing this with the earth s seasons and the rhythms of insomnia, Kristin Martin uncovers what it means to be alive and connected to our world. Full of humour, warmth and heart, Paint the Sky is a poetry collection that will enchant, awaken and move. - Lynette Washington Kristin Martin reminds us that rare moments between perfectly ordinary people are precious gems - and lovingly holds them up to the sunlight. With a potpourri of forms from sonnets, through villanelles to concrete poems, this collection celebrates the entire palette of life: the occasional click of Lego, the catch of the day after a family cricket match when the blue gum had caught the moon/ and was holding it triumphantly/ in the crook of a branch, while the kites/ with an exultant whistle/.escape into the corner of the sky. These poems are a panoply of emotions covering themes as wide as falling in (and out) of love, homelessness, insomnia, dealing with grief and even metapoetics with the memorable line: my...
