Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s a curious thing-life. Ya might just as well ask a kitten to chase her own tail or a dog to bay at the evenin star, or a periodical spring to run constant, as to ask a feller right out to tell a story. Some things can only be done spontaneous. Friar Tuck used to say at whenever he could cut it, he allus got on the lee side o human nature and let it blow down on him natural; and my way o gettin to the lee side o human nature in story-tellin is not to ask for a story, but to start tellin one myself. And it s a good plan not to put over too good a one either; cause if it seems as though a feller is short run on stories, some listener is likely to take pity on him and fit him out with a new assortment so as he won t be such bad company for himself when he s alone again. This is the way I ve picked up most o my stories. Then again, it s allus hard for me to tell what is the true beginnin of a story. It s easy enough to tell cream from milk-after the milk has stood long enough for the cream to rise to the top; but the great trouble is, that a man s own recollections haven t stood long enough for him to skim out just what part he might be in need of.
