The frontier held a multitude of dangers and now the rumors of unrest between the Indians to the west and the English to the east only magnified the dangers. Determined to please her husband, she ignores the churning in her spirit and set out hoping to find peace with her new future. Micah knows her life will never be the same, but she never imagined just how different it would become. Can she forgive her husband for his part in the situation now finds herself? Will she cling to the anger and blame that she holds between herself and God, or will she reach for the Hand of Mercy and accept a new beginning?.
