BROKEN FAMILY LAW: IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE MINOR CHILD

BookSurge Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 400 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 1.1in. Broken Family Law: In the Best Interests of the Minor Child, is Thomas A. Cherewicks contribution to anyone who has faced, or will be subjected to, the vagaries and unpredictability of the U. S. family law system. Two decades of being the Respondent in a child custody case give Cherewick the knowledge, expertise, and ammunition to deliver this no-holds-barred and highly enlightening book. More than a how-to guide, every section is about what works and what doesnt in a system that is flawed, often unfair, and undeniably broken. The author delivers important information about finding the right attorney and protecting oneself from setups, becoming well-versed in giving straightforward depositions and testimony, while juxtaposing against each informative point his frustrating encounters. Whether dealing with an ex, a divorce attorney, social worker or family law judge, Cherewick exposes how facts and the law are often manipulated for the good of one, often to the detriment of the child. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
