

Clinical Guide to the Treatment of the Mentally Ill Homeless Person

By Paulette Marie Gillig, Hunter L. McQuiston, American Association of Community Psychiatrists

American Psychiatric Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Clinical Guide to the Treatment of the Mentally Ill Homeless Person, Paulette Marie Gillig, Hunter L. McQuiston, American Association of Community Psychiatrists, A case-based, clinical guide applicable to a variety of settings, this book offers evidence-based expert advice on the difficult challenges inherent in working with underserved homeless populations. The American Association of Community Psychiatrists' Clinical Guide to the Treatment of the Mentally Ill Homeless Person is a concise, practical work that gives busy clinicians the information they need; it not only is more up-to-date than existing publications, but also offers case- and site-based content that provides more hands-on, practical advice. Written by clinicians, for clinicians, it offers approaches to therapy and rehabilitation from the vantage point of the treatment environment, from street to housing and everything in between. The book reflects approaches to the clinical care of homeless people refined over two decades, building not only on the work of academic research but more importantly on the firsthand experience of clinicians. Its organization by treatment setting or specific subpopulation allows readers quick access to the chapters most relevant to their work. The first five chapters follow a sequence of naturalistic...
