Excerpt: . . . XII. WOMAN AS CITIZEN. (concerning Suffrage.) The Ballot: A weapon that comes down as still As snowflakes fall upon the sod, But executes a freemans will, As lightning does the Will of Oodl --John Piebpont, 1800. Could an investigating and unprejudiced stranger enter America, he would find some startling legal and industrial conditions, semi-civilized conservatisms existing within our vaunted democracy. Perhaps the most glaring inconsistency of the republic would be the fact that half the population of seventy-six millions, being in sound mind and morals, a good per cent. American born, are wholly disfranchised. From infancy, we are regaled with the foundation maxims of our national independence; Governments derive their just power from the consent of the governed, No taxation without representation, yet here are some thirty-eight million people governed without consent, and all these millions taxed without representation! What is the cause of this singular paradox Why did our country enter into a heartrending war to free a race of illiterate black people, making the final issue, the giving of these black men the citizens badge of honor, the ballot; yet totally ignore the intelligent, moral white women in every home, utterly deprived of political power Never were women so competent, so well-educated as to-day, yet the press utters not a word against their absolute civil inpotency, while it hurls stormy denunciations at a Southern State which dares disfranchise its negro men! Let us dispassionately review for a moment the pages of history. How many...
