

Moto: Volume 1: A Day of Tyranny (Paperback)

By Hitzory

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It has been nearly ten years since the War of Perdition and the Almich conquest of the island nation Olsenna. Benjamin Andrews, Ronald Lionn Jr., Damon Lei Jones, and Janette Jones are captives-not behind bars, but under observation. Every day for the past several years, the entire continent of Manthur, plus their home Olsenna, has lived a life of fear and repression from the Almich conquerors. Thorough surveillance, brutal policing, and media propaganda under the guise of technological and social advancement exist to destroy the last remnants of the Olzen way. The Olzen four, along with other children of dignitaries, are classmates at an International School of Friendship, whose stated purpose is to end hostilities through integration into Almich culture. The Olzen four must decide if they will hang on to their culture and deal with the consequences, or become one with the Almich code and forget the Olzen way. And if they have had enough, who do you trust when any and everyone can be either friend or foe? Breaking the yoke of tyranny has consequences. Lives and destinies hang...
