Rock s Mills Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . No, despite the title, this isn t a self-help book! But You Can t Be Serious does lay foundations of hope and help for a civilization that seems bent on losing its purpose. Ranging through disciplines as diverse as science, economics, philosophy, poetry and religion in inimitably informal and conversational fashion, You Can t Be Serious involves the reader in shaping a take on the future that offers fresh coherence, meaning and delight. Lots of wisdom . I will be sharing in my sermons and in worship. --Richard C. Choe, Coordinating Minister, Grace United Church St. Paul s United Church, Brampton, Ontario [Paterson s] life as a journalist and an academic outlier ensure lively readability, and with just enough rigour to set the pace for careful response. And that s exactly what he asks of the reader. Careful, considered response. He doesn t propose easy solutions, but he does propose an excellent method for living. From the Introduction this: It comes down to a choice far more complicated and difficult than it might seem: a choice between raw fear and unqualified trust. Fear, it seems to me, has botched hope for far too much of human history: unqualified trust has rarely been given a fair go. Trust in what? That s a good question. But I d also want to ask fear of what? My answer to both questions has to be: I don t know. I do know, though, that fear inhibits while trust liberates. And living in trust is not only more motivating and energizing than living in fear: it s heaps more fun. Curiosity takes me further when I trust. The [later chapters in the book] reflect [the...
