Excerpt from The Improvement Era, Vol. 35: Organ of the Priesthood Quorums, the Mutual Improvement Associations and the Department of Education; June, 1932 States today wearing out sole leather looking for jobs when there are no jobs. 18 it a square deal that these good American citi zens, who are ready, able and anxious to work, must roam about in idleness, while their wives and children starve and freeze? Is it not a travesty to say that millions of persons must go hun gry because there is too much food; that millions must be ragged and scantily clad because we have too much wool and cotton; that mil lions must be cold because we have too much fuel? And yet that is the kind of foolishness we have been hearing for the past years. That and a lot of fine talk about rugged individualism. A precious lot of good rugged in dividualism does the working Who cannot find a job and whose family is destitute!
