

Almost a Family

By Stephanie Bond

Stephanie Bond, Incorporated, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A second chance at love? Ten years ago Virginia Catron and Bailey Callihan had to get married, but they loved each other fiercely and adored their son when he came into their lives. Fate dealt them a cruel blow when their infant son was snatched in a grocery store. Their new marriage couldn't withstand the strain and when it became clear their baby would not be found, they divorced, brokenhearted and grief-stricken. They haven't seen each other since their divorce was finalized. The story opens when word arrives that their son has been found alive. Can these three virtual strangers come together to make a family? Wonderful story, poignant, warm, emotion-packed. Loved the characters. Excellent plot and happy ending. --Rendezvous [The author] writes quite perceptively about the complexity of familial relationships in this nicely developed tale of love reborn. --Romantic Times Book Reviews.
