

Apes-USA: Academic Performance Evaluation of Students - Ubiquitous System Analyzed: Letter Grading System is Inherently Unfair B

By Prof Keshava Prasad Halemane Ph D

Partridge Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Congratulations! You have, right in front of you, a treasure. From within these pages you will be able to pick up a good collection of reformist ideas and concepts, endowed with the potential to bring about an epoch making impact on all kinds of assessments or evaluations in general, and in the academic performance evaluation of students, in particular. Once it so happened that Prasad was moved by a real life encounter with one of his long time friends who shared with him her sour experience as a student in a premiere educational institution. It seems that when she inquired with the professor who gave her a B grade in a course in which she expected an A grade, she was called to a side and explained that it was indeed a very high B , and that after all the difference between a low A and a high B is only marginal! However, that marginal difference had resulted in her missing an admission into an elite graduate program, which was her cherished dream unrealized. Prasad was...
