Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Introductory Address, Delivered at the Opening of the Annual Course of Lectures of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, in the City of New York, October 19th, 1857 Mr. President and Gentlemen: On an occasion like the present, I might be expected to commend to your favorable regard that branch of Science with whose supervision and administration, in this Institution, I am honored. If this branch of Education were new, or if the general sentiment of the profession and of mankind had riot been decidedly expressed in its favor, I should feel it incumbent upon me to attempt a plea in its defense. But, since it is neither novel nor destitute of public favor, I have deemed it not inappropriate to ask your attention to the general philosophy of the processes of Education - a topic of vital interest to the well-being of society, and which has elicited the widest discussion, not only with the view of improving details, but of placing the whole system upon a rational foundation, in accordance with the spirit of the age, and the constitution of the human mind. I propose, briefly, to consider the peculiar claims which Natural Science has to be considered a branch of liberal Education, and the important purposes it may subserve in training the mind for efficient action. It may be viewed: I. In reference to the immediate discipline of the powers of the mind. II. With reference to certain intellectual habits which the study is fitted to form and strengthen; and, III. In its manifold relations with the useful arts and the economy of life. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of...
