Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Struggle of the Irish People: Address to the Congress of the United States Adopted at the January Session of Dail Eireann, 1921 To the Elected Representatives of the people of the United States of America: We, the elected representatives of Ireland, recognizing in you the elected Representatives in Congress of the people of the United States of America, our brethren in the common effort to hasten the day when the nations may dwell together in justice and in harmony, have the honor to greet and to address you. 1. We feel certain that the struggle of our people - the people of Ireland - against the aggression of England is not passing unobserved by you. We covet your esteem as we would value your sympathy and support and fearful lest you be misled by the widespread, persistent, and insidious propaganda of falsehood through which England seeks to create prejudice against us - distorting the character of the contest, we hasten to lay before you facts, so that correctly informed you may be able to judge justly. 2. The nation which we represent enjoyed for over a thousand years the life of an independent sovereign State among the States of Europe. Then a neighboring nation - England - which had received the benefits of civilization and education first from our hands, lost to gratitude and honor and burning with lust for our possessions, burst in upon us as a conscienceless invader, and through the course of many generations strove to subvert our polity, annihilate our language and our culture, suppress our industry, ruin our agriculture, steal our trade and our commerce, deprive us of the...
