

Aunnies Summertime Adventures

By Aunnie S. Livingston

Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. In this book, eight year-old author, Aunnie Allison, also known as Aunnie uses his creative imagination to travel around the world! When he gets a shiny new bike for the holiday, he uses it to set out on an imaginary journey. In the book, each of Aunnies journeys takes young readers to a different part of the world, but the places he visits in real-life, add to the fun and excitement! Carrying a pen and paper, he records his fun-filled excursions and shares some great family snapshots along the way. A trip to the aquarium sparks curiosity about the Amazon Rainforest. A visit to the zoo puts him in the middle of the African savannas and a magical trip back in time becomes a chance to visit the circus. By reading this story, children will live, laugh and learn. For families who live in the Chicagoland area, its a way to rediscover the city. For others visiting the city, its a guide for finding popular tourist attractions. Aunnies adventures will inspire other young readers to find ways to create family fun by visiting similar places in their own...
