Gregor has done what he promised me. He has told no one. Not even his parents know that the child is not his. Oh, my dear nania, a scandal--a vile American divorce suit--no, no--I couldn't! And father--you know what sacrifices he has made to cover up my disgrace? And if I was divorced I should be a new burden on his shoulders. Natasha. You'd marry again--Miriam. Oh, no, nania, I couldn't marry again. Natasha. Oh, you'd find a better man Miriam. Oh, no, no! How can one? First to have a lover, then a husband, and then to abandon that husband for another, just as the gypsies trade horses. No, nania, I must suffer, endure, and be silent. That's what I promised to do. Nania, such is the world--a whole life of pain is the price you...
