The following Letter to the General Agent of the Parent Society was read to the meeting. Boston, Feb. 7, 1533. I had the honor to receive, this morning, through your kind communication, the invitation of the Committee of Arrangements, to attend the Anniversary Celebration of the Massachusetts Colonization Society, - and I beg to assure you, that it is with great regret, that I find myself prevented, by previous engagements, the gratification of being present on so interesting an occasion. The objects of the Society appear to me, to be...
