Rules For Fools Are Tools For The Wise

By Henry Edward Gibbons

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 108 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. An original assemblage of self-styled and favorable maxims for a growing international community with no allowance for prejudice or even of distinguishing race or religion inside this unique brand of social wisdom. Intelligence is international and there is a lack of wisdom which is equally wide-spread. This regimen of home-made rules goes as far as including suggestions on how humans around the globe are, should, or should not be. Whether you agree or disagree, this writing will make you think. The self-titled idioms begin as discourses of common sense that may at once seem obvious to most readers but are presented in a way that challenges the reader to look again, and move to a more esoteric view of the relationship of one human to another. What is missing is what the reader is encouraged to produce as a by-product, a challenge to perhaps relate the writing on a personal level. Still, a deeper look uncovers a sense of humor which gives some of the more difficult passages their merit. When childhood lessons fail to instill sound reason in a...
