Teaching Shakespeare: A Midsummer Night s Dream Teacher s Book

By Simon Greaves

The Shakespeare Comic Book Company Ltd, United Kingdom, 2012. Spiral bound. Condition: New. Simon Greaves (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Teaching Shakespeare presents over 50 photocopiable worksheets. Different sections of the book cover all aspects of Shakespeare study such as, language, character, structure, sources, and the cultural background of Tudor and Stuart England. Teachers of younger students may wish to concentrate on particular areas such as character (Do you think the character behaves the way he does because he s been treated badly?) or explore Shakespeare s use of rhyme (Do you think Shakespeare s use of rhyme makes what happens in the play seem more or less real?). Other sections may be better suited to older students such as those on theme (In what way is the theme of confinement and forgiveness carried through until the very last lines of the play?) and structure (If you wanted to speed up the action in Act 1, what parts could you cut from it without losing the plot?). Almost all worksheets contain a Talking Points section to encourage either teacher-led or group based discussion about specific topics. Some of the focus...
