THE BUWAYB CONSPIRACY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BUWAYB CONSPIRACY is a first person account of a conspiracy to win a huge, vastly lucrative contract for the construction of a refinery in Saudi Arabia; a conspiracy that in its wake lead to several murders in an effort to preserve its secrecy. Its compelling plot includes powerful love interests and a number of surprising and unexpected twists and turns right up to the very last page. Action starts in Saudi Arabia and moves rapidly back and forth between Saudi, the United Kingdom and the United States, then to Switzerland and South Africa, and finally back to the United Kingdom where the ultimate scenes are played out. Max Joubert and Gordon Oldman, employed by a UK-based international construction company are roped in by the chairman and his deputy to assist in a conspiracy to buy the contract for the construction of the oil refinery; Max Joubert in particular to corrupt Chris, a friend in the Ministry of Energy, and coerce him into helping them bribe the Head of the Ministry to award the contract to the company. The bribe went in and the company was awarded the contract, and construction began. The conspiracy remained a secret and with time faded in the minds of those who set it up; that is until rumours reached the company that Chris, who in the meanwhile had moved to the United States, had begun to drink heavily and, driven by drunken guilt, was on the point of exposing the conspiracy. Efforts to persuade him not to do so failed, and when he and his wife died in a mysterious car accident, and Gordon too died in an apparent skiing accident in the Swiss Alps, and a hired assassin...
