Larmer Media, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . If you thought your child had just killed you, would you want to know? In this gut-wrenching posthumous murder mystery, single mother Lulu implores the reader to help solve her murder before the granny-beckoning tunnel swallows her whole. Did her beloved boy really stab her or is there something even more disturbing going on? Help Lulu sort the dead herrings from the clues before it's too late. So there's been a murder. My murder, in fact, but please don't waste time feeling sorry for me. Your tears and platitudes are of no use to me now. I need your help to solve this thing, and I need it fast. Help me work out whodunit before that bloody light extinguishes all hope of ever knowing. With her dead Grandma beckoning furiously from the tunnel, Ludovica Gold is desperate to solve the mystery of her murder before she heads off into eternity. Not because she's especially curious, but because the last thing she saw as her head hit the ground was her son's black Converse sneakers. Did her beloved boy really murder her? Was it over something as fickle as birthday cake? Or is there something deeper, and more poignant going on? In this heart-wrenching story of one woman's quest to uncover the truth, the reader is invited along to help solve whodunnit and maybe save Ludovica's boy along the way. Will the truth set her free or destroy everything she ever knew about herself and her loved ones? Top-selling author of The Agatha Christie Book Club, C.A. Larmer takes us on a remarkable journey that is deeply moving with plenty of dark humor and an ending that...
