Excerpt from Translation of the General Law of Public Works of the Island of Cuba: And Regulations for Its Execution; With the Addition of All Subsequent Provisions Published to Date; 1891 Article 1. Public works, for the purposes of this law, shall be understood to be those which are of general use or service, and such constructions as are devoted to the service and are in charge of the State, of the Provinces, and of the towns. In the first group are included roads - ordinary as well as railroads ports, light-houses, great irrigation canals, navigation canals, and the works necessary to the disposition, use, and police of waters, the retention of rivers within their beds, draining of lakes and marshes, and sanitation of lands. And the second group shall include public buildings devoted to service depending on the Colonial Department. Art. 2. The examination and approval of the projects, supervision of the construction and preservation of the public works, their police and use, shall always be dependent on the Administration, in which soever of its central powers, and on the provincial and municipal Administrations. Art. 3. Public works, both in relation to their plans and their construction, operation, and preservation, may be charged to the State, to the Province, to Municipalities, or to individuals or companies.
