

Angels of War (Paperback)

By Karinn Martel

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How can a game have a winner when the rules constantly change? Mankind has been on earth for eons of time, yet there is always an apocalypse to even the score. There were rules and everyone always abided by them. But what if the rules were changed and no one was told? What if God and Lucifer decided to make things more interesting? War's seal was broken and he was sent to earth, but he did not pick up his weapon to fight. He fell in love with a human and had a daughter who was touched by God. With his sword broken and scattered, five angels were sent down to earth to retrieve the flames of steel and help War to win. Alas, the other horsemen were not so amused by the sudden change in the game and they wanted to be the victors. They only had to do two things: kill the girl and get War back on their side. War was not going to give up that easily and with angels who had no idea how life as...
