George. The World s First Baking Magician tells an extraordinarily heartwarming and funny story of life at one of the strangest schools in the country - where the school cleaner doesn t really do much cleaning! It is a story of friendship, family and magic baking! Readers are set to be utterly spellbound by this heartfelt story that will bring a smile to everyone. This is an adventure full of comedy and heart. Beautifully illustrated. George and Marley love their school. Pickled Daniels, the spiteful school cleaner, hates it. Well past her sell-by date, she has a passion for upsetting kids with her awful ideas, tools and contraptions. George and Marley have found her out and intend to uncover exactly what she gets up to when the school is shut. They enlist the help of George s cousin, computer wizard Sam and together they aim to discover the truth! Sam has a plan. A plan that involves breaking into the headmistress s office, upsetting her faithful dog Clive, stealing documents and robbing Dad s state of the art mobile phone. What could possibly go wrong.? Children who enjoy the books of Roald Dahl, David Walliams and comedy novels for children and young adults will love this book.
