Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Oliver is a very curious little boy who is taken to the library by his father and asked to find a book and read it while his father is occupied. He wanders around till he has an encounter with a Thesonasaurus; a small creature called Roget Thesaurus. The small lizard-like Roget who is out exercising some words, reveals a magical door through which Oliver catches a glimpse of Biblios the strangest of towns; a world of words where all the buildings are in the shape of books, large tomes, small diaries, notebooks, scrolls, tablets and parchments - in fact everything that has ever been written on, and where the trees are shaped like pencils or quills. He desperately wants to follow Roget the small Saurus through the little blue door but is told that he cannot enter as permission must first be granted by the Word Warden, the person in charge of Biblios. The Thesonasaurus promises Oliver to ask the Word Warden s permission for him to enter the following day. On his way home Oliver convinces his father to...
