Between the great pillars of power, that super-vitality to arouse, to quicken, to stimulate others, and an overflowing love that extended even to inanimate things, there existed in her nature sympathy, tolerance and understanding. To these traits were added many qualities of charm, and gifts that made her the remarkable Woman. Anne Simon was a true friend, and penetrated to the innermost sorrow and need. Her broad culture and spiritual insight opened the wider vision for many. She was an artist who loved suggestion and shadow in music, painting and poetry. . . the fallen petal, the grace of the single flower, and the concentrated beauty of the precious stone. On her brow rested the touch of genius. In her journal, she mentions the mystic stones, the chalcedony, beryl, sard, chrysoprase, jacinth, wine-yellow topaz.
