

So What Are You Going to Do with That Finding Careers Outside Academia, Third Edition

By Susan Basalla

University Of Chicago Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 168 pages. Dimensions: 9.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. Graduate schools churn out tens of thousands of PhDs and MAs every year. Yet more than half of all college courses are taught by adjunct faculty, which means that the chances of an academic landing a tenure-track job seem only to shrink as student loan and credit card debts grow. What's a frustrated would-be scholar to do? Can she really leave academia? Can a job outside the academy really be rewarding? And could anyone want to hire a grad-school refugee? In this third edition of So What Are You Going to Do with That, thoroughly revised with new advice for students in the sciences, Susan Basalla and Maggie Debelius PhDs themselves answer all those questions with a resounding Yes! A witty, accessible guide full of concrete advice for anyone contemplating the jump from scholarship to the outside world, So What Are You Going to Do with That covers topics ranging from career counseling to interview etiquette to how to translate skills learned in the academy into terms an employer can understand and appreciate. Packed with examples and stories from real people who have successfully made this daunting but potentially...

Reviews

This book is great. It is written in simple words and not difficult to understand. I discovered this pdf from my dad and I suggested this ebook to find out.
