Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People everywhere are finding fascinating and effective ways to get relief from the symptoms of Parkinson s disease. Some people are symptom free today - not many - but some. There is hope, especially when you see what smart things people with Parkinson s are doing for themselves to feel better and reverse their own symptoms. The pioneers in this first set of interviews discuss the therapies, approaches and treatments that help them feel a lot better. They refuse to accept the false belief that recovery is impossible. All have found ways to get great relief from their symptoms using a natural therapy or treatment. Each person has a unique story, but each story is packed with hope and promise for a better tomorrow. Of course, recovery can be slow and frustrating, but the stories reveal an indisputable truth. A little experimentation and courage goes a long way. Seven of the 14 interviews are with persons who have been diagnosed with Parkinsons. Each story is unique. Each person is doing something different to feel better. Each story is packed with hope that relief is possible for anyone. Find fascinating insights about how you can . * Take herbs that help relieve specific symptoms - Herbalist Andrew Bentley gets good results with his Parkinsons clients. Andrew talks about specific herbs he uses for very specific symptoms like tremors, rigidity and excessive salivation. What he is doing for his own clients will help revolutionize how Parkinson s is treated. * Explore the healing power of essential oils - What are essential oils and how can they help you? Jean Oswald answers these questions for us. She offers specific recommendations about the essential oil that helps...
