Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 95: August 24, 1933 The Primary proved to be something which both the parents and the children wanted, for it grew with great rapidity. With the growth Of numbers has come an enlarged vision Of possibilities. Though fields Of activity have been more clearly defined and some modifications made, yet the general Objectives remain practically the same as at the beginning. The Children s Friend, published monthly, has been enlarged and made better. It is the only Church periodical devoted entirely to children. In it are the usual features that appeal to children: stories, pictures, poems, articles, and also a parent s department. Back Of each contribution there is a spiritual significance which children need in this matter-of-fact world. The stories are interest ing the pictures, true to the interests of childhood, are always selected from what is best in art. It is really an encouraging friend for little children. The lesson material and helps for the Officers and teachers now form a separate magazine which con tains material for three months, and is published quarterly. The field of activity for the Primary Association is considered to be practical religion, developed through the fields of ethics, economics, sociology, and athletics. Opportunity is afforded the children to practically live out experiences in the field of religion, to practise Gospel principles in a happy way and thus find joy in Church affiliation, to be trained in character-building, and at the same time be taught faith in God. As the years from four to fourteen are the habit-forming years Of children, stress is placed upon health and happiness through service, that they might, once impressed...
