

The Angel in My Pocket: A Story of Love, Loss, and Life After Death

By Forbes, Sukey

Viking, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Praise for The Angel in My Pocket "There is a unique and lovely energy underlying this bookone that stems from Forbes's extended meditation on where Charlotte lands after her death. . . . Forbes's achievement in this book is that her engagement with 'the other side' is thoughtful and, yes, persuasive. . . . The best memoirs depict the movement toward transformation, and Forbes has certainly changed by the end of her book. . . . She has written a complex story of love and grief in which she comes to live with hope and faith." The Boston Globe "A Boston Brahmin who had it all chronicles her experiences dealing with the tragic death of her beloved young daughter. . . . It wasn't until she took a friend's advice to see a medium that she began to accept Charlotte's passing as a form of spiritual transition and understand the depth of her connection to the Emersonian part of her heritage." Kirkus Reviews "What do we do when the unthinkable happens? We have choices, of course. We can break, become tough, allow cynicism to...
