Every thing is assembled here, the produce of the country, and the works of industry; flesh, fish, fruits, garden-seeds, pottery, ironware, shoes, trays, buckets extremely well made, c. The stranger is never wearied in contemplating this multitude of men and women moving and crossing in every direction, without tumult or injury. You would say, that it was a market of brothers, that it was a rendezvous of philosophers, of the pupils of the silent Pythagoras; for silence reigns without interruption: you hear none of those piercing cries so common elsewhere; each one sells, bargains, and buys in silence. The carts carts and horses which have brought in the supplies are peaceably arranged in the next street, in the order in which they arrive; when disengaged, they move off in silence: no quarrels among the carmen and the porters. /You fee none of our fools and...
