

Crossing the Line: Traveling the Roads of Life and Health Care in the Footsteps of the Greatest Generation (Paperback)

By K K Wiscomb

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A sometimes humorous, sometimes sentimental, and sometimes serious commentary on the dramatic difference between the author's expectations for life and what he has actually encountered. Using the fundamental values he was raised to believe in while growing up in the Midwest for comparison, the author focuses on the disparity found today in American business, politics and health care. This baby boomer's personally revealing story and unique perspective will challenge readers to reconsider the bottom line of their own beliefs.
