

Challenging Arbitral Awards

By Al-Hyari, Omar

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: VDM Verlag Dr. Müller | Challenging Arbitral Awards under the Model Law and Arab and English laws based thereon | Challenging arbitral awards is one of the most important subjects that can be raised in the field of arbitration. Its importance lies primarily in that challenging awards is a manner by which unfair awards may be resisted, and this maintains the integrity of the arbitration system. This subject has particular importance under the Model Law as although article 34 thereof is defective in many respects, and has been adopted by many jurisdictions, very little academic literature exists on this article. This book provides an in-depth analysis, and identifies all the deficiencies, of article 34. Basically, the book argues that the Model Law has failed to recognise appeals to arbitral tribunals of second instance as well as appeals to courts on points of law, and whereas it has also failed to provide sufficient grounds for setting aside arbitral awards, the grounds that it provides were not well formulated by its drafters. Whilst the book can be useful to judges, arbitrators, lawyers and PhD students in any Model Law jurisdiction, it can also be useful in any jurisdiction considering the adoption...

READ ONLINE
[ 2.1 MB ]

Reviews

A top quality publication along with the font used was intriguing to read. I really could comprehend everything using this written e book. Its been designed in a remarkably straightforward way and it is only after i finished reading through this publication by which basically altered me, modify the way i believe.

-- Cathrine Larkin Sr.

Very useful to all of group of people. I actually have read through and so i am certain that i will planning to study yet again once again down the road. I am just very easily can get a satisfaction of looking at a created book.

-- Mark Bernier