Excerpt from Annals of Wyoming, Vol. 74: Winter 2002 She relied heavily on William s ideas but Nellie displayed her own grit during her appearance before this joint session of Wyoming legislators. For example, if she needed a reminder that everything he did and said was of national interest. She got one. The Denver Post carried her speech before she presented it. Nellie s legislative address had been erroneously released to a press agency prior to the opening of the legislative session. She learned of the mistake from a friend who telephoned her the night before she was scheduled to speak to Wyoming s lawmakers.
