Prentice Hall, Sydney, 1998. Hardback. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: Fine. First Edition. As we head towards the new millennium, Australians have much to be proud of. Whether in industry or the arts, sport, politics, technology, science or medicine - our stories of success and leadership are true sources of inspiration for our community, in particular our youth. Local Heroes is a snapshot of today's Australia as we head towards the year 2000. It is a remarkable compilation of prominent men and women who talk candidly about their success, the responsibility that comes with leadership and the effects of both on their relationships with family and friends. In these honest, surprising and sometimes very funny interviews, we learn how many of Australia's most highly regarded people have become the outstanding leaders they are today. Illustrated with photographs reflecting the passions of these extraordinary Australians, Local Heroes is an inspiring and touching celebration - a wonderful gift for anyone proud of who we are. book.
