Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memoir of Isaac Ray, M.D., LL. D: Read Before the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, July 6, 1881 It was at this time, while living in Eastport, that Dr. Ray first had his interest excited on the subject of insanity and the treatment of the insane, and especially in reference to matters connected with the branch of medical jurisprudence relating to it. The prevalent views on all these subjects were then far behind what are common at the present day, and led Dr. Ray to prepare a work, The Jurisprudence of Insanity, since generally recognized as one of the highest authorities in this department of medicolegal knowledge, and quoted alike by alienists, lawyers, and all others interested in the subject, at home and abroad. No better evidence of its being generally appreciated need be given than the fact that six editions of it have been exhausted in this country, while it was a source of grief to Dr. Ray that his condition of health rendered it impossible for him to prepare a seventh, which had been asked for by his publishers, and for which he had on hand interesting and important materials. The steady increase of popularity attained by The Jurisprudence of Insanity, as might have been anticipated, led to a change in the tone of the criticisms made in regard to it. From being originally adverse in many quarters, they became highly commendatory everywhere. Dr. Ray was appointed Medical Superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane at Augusta, Maine, in the year 1841, and this led to his permanent removal from Eastport. He immediately assumed the duties of this position, residing in the institution,...
