Pomegranate. Paperback. Condition: New. 48 pages. 22 artworks to color, the originals are shown on the inside coversAll coloring pages are blank on the back, so you can cut out and frame each of your creationsRead about Jill Mayberg in the introductionOne look at the artworks in this coloring book will tell you that artist Jill Mayberg loves animals. She is also a huge fan of color and pattern, particularly stripes, polka dots, and hearts. She brings a sense of fun and play into her work, creating happy scenes with her animal friends. The artist usually begins with a photograph, then layers drawing, painting, and cut-out images into the final work. She admires childrens art and tries to capture a sense of spontaneity in her own work. She paints dogs (and sometimes birds and elephants and others) wearing crowns because she thinks theyroyalty and loves to spoil them. Maybergs childhood home in New Jersey was filled with reproductions of classic paintings as well as original works, because her mother was passionate about art. They took many trips to New York City to visit galleries and museums, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art remains Maybergs favorite place on earth. She moved to the West Coast to attend art school in San Francisco and later settled in southwest Washington. This item ships from multiple locations.
