CALLIOPE

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Calliope is a book dealing with the reality of loss. Specifically it is the protagonist coming to terms with the idea that as one grows older, one inevitably becomes less enthusiastic, less joyous and intrinsically bored with all of the things he so fervently celebrated in youth. This is the loss the reader is introduced to at the beginning of the book. It is the loss of all material possessions, of innocence, of identity, of sympathy, of happiness, of God and hope. And perhaps it is the latter that the protagonist desires most since all sincere belief in the world springs forth from reverberant visions of hope. Therefore, when Calliope tricks the protagonist into partaking on a wild, episodic flight that intertwines both nature and civilization, that sparks conversations of Nietzsche and Rousseau, that involves shoplifting and punk rock music, she is not unlike Dante s Virgil leading him on an adventure spiraling back toward redemption. It is only after such a journey that the protagonist can make himself into a blank slate, and having achieved such a thing, he is now open to return to that natural state experienced most prominently in youth where possibilities...
