She glanced over her shoulder by the side of the river and saw someone walking towards her, thinking it was John she smiled. Grief stricken by the sudden death of her husband Colin, Belinda escaped to the country to begin a new life, free from pain and despair. The effect of this action proved to be Belinda s undoing after an accident threw her into a coma and into a world of dreams and illusions. Which was real and which was the illusion? Only John was with her in the dark. Could he help? Could he find her in time and save her from this nightmare? Why did John keep dreaming about Belinda? Maybe it was because he had seen her recently. Why was she invading his dreams and in such a fashion as to manipulate his whole being? Was he going crazy? He had to find out what was going on before it was too late.
