It sometimes happens that two strangers would meet and suddenly feel like they ve known each other all their lives. It s a bonedeep feeling, strange and overwhelming, and often it is dismissed by those who experience it. For Lucy Bright and Charles Ambrose, two people of deep religious faith, this feeling that struck them upon meeting as teenagers was not something to fear and try to forget, but something to marvel at and explore. But they d both been young and inexperienced then, and though they would have been willing to hold on to this chance and even fight for it if they had to, neither of them knew how. And so they parted ways, and for five long years, they didn t see each other again. Until the day when, unlooked for, they crossed each other s paths. Seeing this for what it was: God s gift to them, a second chance to grab at what they could have together and make things right, the young pair would let nothing hinder them this time. even if the...
