Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .LEARNERSHIP. Learning is a complex human activity with the object of knowledge creation and use in virtually all human affairs. And, learners are people with an ability to learn--although the development of this ability and willingness to use it varies widely across the general population. It follows, then, that there should be a term to describe people who are exceptional and influential learners, the breadth of their capabilities, and the extent of their influence on others. Learnership is the suggested term, and it is derived from: (1) learner - one who seeks to learn or to gain knowledge through experience or study, and (2) -ship (suffix) - to show or possess a quality, state, or condition. Additionally, learnership captures the essence and skill of leadership in which people are skillful in influencing others. Purchasers will be invited via email to a FREE webinar entitled: What is the Meaning of YOUR Life and are encouraged to view our 1 minute book trailer on entitled: Giving Back. Some distinctive features of learnership are: 1. Learnership is an activity in the service of knowledge, its creation, and its application. 2. Learnership is about learning, and about being a learner. 3. Learnership is about knowing and how lifelong learning leads to the acquisition and storage of information and knowledge. 4. Learnership is about leading, and about influencing action. 5. Learnership is a whole-person competence. 6. Learnership can be practiced by just about anyone. From an epistemological viewpoint, learnership contributes to the individual learner's ability to construct their own knowledge of social reality and to succeed within that structure (Reference: The Social Construction of Reality by Berger and Luckmann). Meta-cognitive reflection provides...
