Most persons will say, I m not designed to pray like most people. Or persons will say, Will you pray for me because I know you can get a prayer through. When prayer, all along has been a form of communicating with God, was created for everyone. Our Father God has often said, throughout the Bible, seek Me, call unto Me, or draw nigh unto Me. Those words were invitation to everyone. In this book, the Believer will be exhorted to pray with much intercession. Their faith will be encouraged through the life of Rahab, a harlot of Jericho who lived among the lowliest of the walls of the city. She lived along the Dung gate. Rahab was one who had no destined right to the God of Israel; however, because of her faith she bypassed a call of prayer and went into action by interceding between her nation and the nation of Israel. How did she do that? She hid two of Israel s spies and that act of intercession saved her bloodline from destruction! Whether the Believer sees themselves...
