When twelve-year-olds Jane and Emma are transported to the mysterious and exotic Bone Island, they know that their lives will never be the same again. Lured in by an ancient chest with secrets untold, they begin their quest to retrieve a treasure buried deep within the island. Challenged by mystical creatures, bizarre landscapes, and the difficulties of surviving in the wilderness, the girls fight to keep their friendship and courage alive. The perfect tale for readers who have enjoyed other fantasy adventures. This tale of discovery and friendship will enthrall you throughout the entire book. This story was written by twelve-year-old Sarah Mamros, and edited when she was thirteen.
