There are times when you re reading through Isaiah that you think you are reading through the New Testament. After Psalms, Isaiah is the second most quoted book in the New Testament. Why? It speaks of child to be born who will be more than a king. It prophesizes of a servant who will die a brutal death and take on the sins of the people. Isaiah also paints a picture of a new heaven and new earth in the future. While Isaiah s job was to give comfort to the Jews who were facing exile in Babylon, wondering if they would ever see Jerusalem and the glory of Israel again, he manages to also prepare his people s hearts for something even greater - the arrival of Jesus Christ, God in the flesh, on this earth 700 years later. If you are an enemy of God, Isaiah will scare you. God does not take lightly any attacks on His people. If you are a follower of God, Isaiah will comfort you. He knows Your struggles and He has a plan to take away your sins and give you a home for eternity. PRAYING THROUGH THE BIBLE SERIES What is God s word? Simply put, it is the word of God spoken to people long ago who transcribed that information into writing. That writing was meticulously passed down for thousands of years to speak to us today. How did God speak to people in Bible times? -Audibly - God spoke directly to people who heard him with their ears or in their heart. -Through situations - God spoke through the actions and events of this world. -Through people - God spoke...
