So that if a student is not learning what they are expected to at each grade level, appropriate interventions can be applied so that student does not fall behind. However, there are several approaches that can be taken in as-sessing these students that are taught in their Native language. One of those includes using Native language assessments, as well as accommodations in assessing those students to help them with taking the tests in a language that may not be the Native lan-guage, if the state or the school chooses to use an assessment that is not written in the Native language, as well as alternate assess-ments that can be developed that are given in a more simple man-ner for those students. NOUYE Senator I. In other words, you do not have any...
