Excerpt from Outlines of Church History: For the Use of the Senior Class in the Theological Seminary in Princeton; From A. D. 1648 to 1870 Parliament, assembled Nov. 4, 1547, began by repealing all statutes against heretics, including the odious six articles. It was now enacted that the Mass should give place to the Communion, and that the sacrament should be administered to all communicants under both kinds. The remaining monastic houses were suppressed, and their revenues put into the king's hands, to be expended in erecting grammar schools, in further augmenting the universities, and in making better provision for the poor.
